

Over 35? What's your blood pressure?

A quarter of Leeds residents have raised blood pressure. It rarely has any noticeable symptoms, but if untreated it increases your risk of heart attack, kidney disease and stroke.

For more information visit: [www.leedswestccg.nhs.uk/
health/services/LBPW](http://www.leedswestccg.nhs.uk/health/services/LBPW)

If you're over 35 and don't know your blood pressure, ask your pharmacist if you're eligible for a free check today.

